Tragic News From Por Los Niños in Honduras

On June 12, 2015, a work group that had been visiting Por Los Niños was on the way back to Tegucigalpa from Catacamas. Village Director Jorge Gonzales, his wife Olga, and their daughter Jessa accompanied the group. After a brief rest stop, Olga fell unconscious while riding in the back seat and was not breathing. A member of the work group performed CPR as Jorge rushed to a nearby hospital. Tragically, Olga passed away shortly after arriving at the hospital. The cause of her death is unknown.

Olga was a graceful mother, a dear friend, and a skilled house parent. Our hearts break for her family, the children of Por Los Niños, and the community of Catacamas. We will miss her friendship and love, for she was truly "Mami" to so many. Her legacy will live on in numerous ways—through her husband and four children, through the dozens of children she raised while serving at Por Los Niños, through the other house parents whom she mentored, and through the members of her greater community whose lives she blessed. We ask for your prayers of peace during this time of grieving.

Olga Marina Martinez Lopez, 56, was the wife of Jorge Gonzales. They shared 23 years of marriage together. She is survived by her husband and their four children, Keila, Kellyn, Darlin, and Isai.
